

Alicia Johnson Niles

AUTHOR & MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER

Through the power of her own journey, Alicia shows, not just tells, audiences who face seemingly insurmountable odds how to have Unlikely Courage to right wrongs, create impactful change, and heal from abuse, mental health, and addiction. Her message especially resonates with audiences reeling from the impact of death, loss, and survivor's grief, particularly in military groups and families.

Alicia has a long history of public speaking and advocacy and can customize trainings according to organizational needs for small groups up to gatherings of several thousand.

Angel in Arlington

Alicia's life was shattered when her father was murdered aboard a naval vessel by one of his own men . . . who simply disappeared off the radar.

Amid family terror and innuendo, she was haunted by the traumatic specter of this hidden killer and the monolithic US military all the way into adulthood. Until one day when she decided to uncover the truth.

Angel in Arlington is the riveting true-life story about a frightened young woman who found her own unlikely courage to expose a government conspiracy inside the US Navy and to hunt down a murderer--the man who pulled the trigger on her father.
